Caritas Hallam Report 2022

Caritas Diocese of Hallam (formerly known as Hallam Caring Services) is part of the worldwide network of organisations in the Catholic Church putting into action the social teaching of the Church to reach out to those in need and to build a world based on justice and love.

Periodically, we aim to produce a report to highlight the work of Caritas Hallam that features articles to show the fantastic work of some of our young people within the Diocese, together with details of projects that help the most vulnerable in our society.

Due to Covid, the usual report was delayed and has been incorporated into the current Caritas Report. Please support our work by reading and sharing the online report: Caritas-Report-2022.pdf \(hallam-diocese.com\)

Padley Pilgrimage Mass TODAY

A reminder that the annual Padley Pilgrimage Mass takes place today, Sunday 10 July at 3.30pm in the grounds of the ruined Padley Hall (a few hundred yards from Grindleford Station - from where the procession to the chapel and grounds commences at 3pm.) The preacher will be Rt. Rev. John Arnold, Bishop of Salford. Pilgrims are welcome to arrive early and picnic in the grounds. (Looks like it will be a pilgrimage day for cold drinks, sunblock and parasols rather than the umbrellas, waterproofs and hot drinks that our hardy Lourdes pilgrims needed recently!)

If you were planning to get there by train, please CHECK THE BRITISH RAIL WEBSITE as Hope Valley services are disrupted on Sundays in July.

The pilgrimage honours Blessed Robert Ludlam and Blessed Nicholas Garlick, two of the Catholic priests who were martyrs of the mission to Elizabethan England in the late 1500's. They were captured at Padley Hall on 12 July 1588, and subsequently executed at Derby on 24 July 1588. So if you are unable to attend the Mass today, you might perhaps make your own private pilgrimage to the grounds on one of those anniversaries or some other time during the next fortnight.

This Coming Saturday, 16 July at 12.30 p.m. we will be celebrating a Diocesan Mission Mass at the Cathedral Church of St Marie, Norfolk Row, Sheffield S1 2JB. Mass will be celebrated by Bishop Ralph Heskett CSsR and Fr Tony Chantry MHM, National Director of Missio.

Formation and Mission, Synodality and Spirituality

One strand of synod responses from across the Diocese was about formation, asking for opportunities for learning about and deepening our faith.

We are happy to support faith Formation in any way we can and are gathering a Directory of people who offer Spiritual Accompaniment i.e. someone who can talk with you about your prayer life and faith. See the Diocesan website: hallam-diocese.com.

In addition, there are a number of courses/opportunities to enter into this more deeply:

1. Ignatian Spirituality Centre Glasgow: Growth in Prayer and Reflective Living - Online Course via Zoom

2. Training in Spiritual Conversation and Personal and Spiritual Development; two courses from St Bedes Pastoral Centre, York:

<https://www.stbedes.org.uk/whats-on/training-in-spiritual-conversation-skills/>

<https://www.stbedes.org.uk/whats-on/personal-and-spiritual-development-psd-course/>

3. Llysfasi Spirituality Workshop Foxhill House and Woodlands, From Friday 12th August to Monday 29th August 2022. <https://llysfasi-spirituality-workshop.org.uk/workshop>

4. Retreats in Daily Life are also available, and we hope soon to have a register of online prayer groups which are open to new praying members.

Do not be discouraged from any of these because of the cost; get in touch as bursaries may be available.

8 things you didn't know about the food system:

Millions of people who produce our food are living in poverty themselves.

Around 800 million people go hungry each day and the majority of them are those who grow the world's food. Three-quarters of people facing hunger in the world are living in rural areas and most of them depend on agriculture for their livelihood. 25 per cent of people in Africa are affected by hunger – the continent with the highest proportion. Of course, hunger is an issue in the UK too, with 9 per cent of adults experiencing food insecurity in January 2022.

And also online you can join in a session about the World food crisis - with an Emergency update from East Africa on Thursday, 14 July 7:00-8:00pm. In Kenya, Ethiopia and South Sudan, up to 20 million people are fighting for their very survival as they face a food crisis that could be worse than any we've lived through. Join in to hear from CAFOD's local and global experts who will share what is happening and what we can do. Register to join in at <https://cafod.org.uk/Volunteer/Online-talks>

Thought for the Week

Remember that when you leave this earth,
you can take with you nothing that you have received,
only what you have given – a full heart,
enriched by honest service,
love, sacrifice and courage.

Saint Francis of Assisi

Tomorrow, Monday, is the feast of Saint Benedict of Nursia. Born in 480, he was a student in Rome but abandoned his studies to escape the dissolute life of the city. He lived for three years as a hermit in a cave in the mountains, but was gradually drawn towards a more communal form of monasticism. He organised various communities of monks and nuns, including the great monastery of Monte Cassino. He drew up a set of rules to guide the communal life of monasteries. The Rule of St Benedict has proved so wise and balanced that it has served as the foundation of many other attempts at communal living - not only in religious communities. The Rule recognises that people aim at perfection but often fall well short. So it aims to be a “rule for beginners” in which even the least perfect can grow in spiritual stature.

Benedict died, aged 67. He was canonised in 1220. In 1980, Pope John Paul II declared him co-patron of Europe, together with Saints Cyril and Methodius

Thursday 14 July is the feast day of St Camillus of Lellis. Born in Abruzzi in 1550, he was first a soldier, and then, after his conversion to a more religious life, he dedicated himself to the care of the sick. He was ordained priest, then founded a religious congregation which set up hospitals to look after the sick. He died in Rome in 1614. He is a patron saint of the sick and of hospitals, nurses and healthcare workers - and, having gambled away his fortune in his youth, of those with gambling problems.

An unusual candidate for sainthood?

St Henry, whose feast day we celebrate this Wednesday, was Holy Roman Emperor around the turn of the first Millennium. During his reign he had to deal with disputes to protect his frontiers. This involved him in a number of battles, especially in the south in Italy; he also helped Pope Benedict VIII quell disturbances in Rome. His ultimate purpose was a stable peace in Europe. He was outstanding in his reforms of the Church and his encouragement of missionary activity. He set up many dioceses and founded monasteries .

Henry was a man of his times. From our standpoint, he may have been too quick to do battle and too ready to use his imperial power to accomplish reforms. But, for all that, he shows that holiness is possible in a busy secular life.

Prayers for the Week

O God, who by the Precious Blood of your Only Begotten Son have redeemed the whole world, preserve in us the work of your mercy,
so that, ever honouring the mystery
of our salvation,
we may merit to obtain its fruits.
Through our lord Jesus Christ, your son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the holy spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

Admitted to your sacred table, O Lord,
we have with joy drawn water from the fountains of the Saviour:
O may his blood, we beseech thee,
become within us a fountain of water springing up to eternal life.
Amen.
