Next Sunday, 19 June, is the Catholic Church's Day for Life. This year the focus is on older people. For more details see the Catholic Bishops Conference website, <https://www.cbcew.org.uk/df122-bishops-message/> There will be a retiring collection next weekend to support the Church's Day for Life initiatives.

Free MOOC on theology and practice of synodality

Are you ready to learn more about the theology and practice of Synodality?

We are excited to announce that the first course in the new MOOC, "Theology and Practice of Synodality" will be offered online in July 2022. Over a period of three weeks, different topics on Common discernment and Decision making in the Church will be covered.

This course is part of a larger project to accompany formation for more than 100,000 people who have been called to this process of ecclesial renewal. All of the courses will be offered free of charge in several languages—Spanish, English, Portuguese, French and Italian.

The world is changing. Our Church is changing. But we are not alone in this transformation. We have been called to participate in the renewal of our Church, and this course will help us do just that.

For the registration and more information get in touch at formation-mission@hallam-diocese.com

Trinity Sunday By Christina Rossetti

My God, Thyself being Love Thy heart is love,
And love Thy Will and love Thy Word to us,
Whether Thou show us depths calamitous
Or heights and flights of rapturous peace above.
O Christ the Lamb, O Holy Ghost the Dove,
Reveal the Almighty Father unto us;
That we may tread Thy courts felicitous,
Loving Who loves us, for our God is Love.
Lo, if our God be Love thro' heaven's long day,
Love is He thro' our mortal pilgrimage,
Love was He thro' all aeons that are told.
We change, but Thou remainest; for Thine age
Is, Was, and Is to come, nor new nor old;
We change, but Thou remainest; yea and yea!

GIVE TO LIVE 100 CLUB

With apologies for the lack of information regarding the 100 Club and draws since January. Hopefully my year of health issues is coming to an end and normal service is being resumed!

May's draw will take place next week and then we will have caught up in time for the end of June draw. Sadly, we have lost some members recently and I have retired their numbers.

Here are the results of February, March & April's draws.

FEBRUARY

1st Paul Embley £69.30
2nd C & J Perryman £19.80
3rd Kath Embley £9.90

MARCH

1st Graham Smith £65.80
2nd Mary Harrison £18.80
3rd Raymond Kinsella £9.40

APRIL

1st Samantha Colley £65.80
2nd Claire Parsons £18.80
3rd Angela Wood £9.40

Bins - There are a few issues concerning the bins for the parish rooms. Firstly, they are being over-filled and being used incorrectly. It is important that the correct rubbish is put in the correct bin. Other bins SHOULD NOT be used when one is full. Excess rubbish must be taken home and disposed of and NOT be left by the bins. If bins are and overfilled the bin men will not empty them.

Secondly - The bins need to be put out each Monday evening and we would like a team of people who can take it in turn to put them out and generally keep the bin area clean. If you can help please contact Liz Mason at the presbytery. Thank you!

Wednesday 8 June saw the next step in the synodal journey for parishioners of St Mary's and St Gerard's. They met to review the diocesan summary report and to discern the next step for their parishes. It was a lively and prayerful meeting and the parish are optimistic.

Reflection on the Holy Trinity

We acknowledge the Trinity, holy and perfect, to consist of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. It is a wholly creative and energising reality, self-consistent and undivided in its active power, for the Father makes all things through the Word and in the Holy Spirit, and in this way the unity of the holy Trinity is preserved. Accordingly, in the Church, one God is preached, one God who is above all things and through all things and in all things. God is above all things as Father, for he is principle and source; he is through all things through the Word; and he is in all things in the Holy Spirit.

St Athanasius (4th Century)

Tomorrow, 13 June, we celebrate the Feast of St Anthony of Padua. Born in Lisbon in 1195, Anthony's journey as the servant of God began as a young man when he joined the Augustinians in Lisbon, giving up a future of wealth and power. Later when five Franciscans were martyred, he was inspired to enter the Franciscan Order. He set out to preach to the Moors in Africa, but when illness obliged him to leave Morocco he served at a small hermitage in Italy, praying, reading the Scriptures and doing menial tasks. Years of searching for Jesus in prayer, of reading sacred Scripture and of serving in poverty, chastity and obedience prepared Anthony to allow the Spirit to use his talents. He became an outstanding preacher and theologian, leading the friars in Northern Italy – from Padua - for three years, and later preaching in Southern France, then a stronghold of the Albigensian heresy. He returned to Padua at the end of his short life, dying there in 1231. He is the patron saint of Lisbon, lost items and poor people (to name just three from a very long list of causes!)

Come on, Paddington. It's been a long weekend. Time for that marmalade sandwich I think.

Prayer for the Week

Prayer for Trinity Sunday

God our Father, who by sending into the world the Word of truth and the Spirit of sanctification made known to the human race your wondrous mystery, grant us, we pray, that in professing the true faith, we may acknowledge the Trinity of eternal glory and adore your Unity, powerful in majesty. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen

Pope Francis's June Prayer Intention - For Families

We pray for Christian families around the world; may they embody and experience unconditional love and advance in holiness in their daily lives. When the world feels heavy and our crosses almost unbearable, may families focus on the choice right in front of them, willing to be a servant to one another. That foundation of grace, mercy and love will surely give us the strength we need to advance in holiness, one imperfect choice at a time.
