New Missals - As you know the Bishops of England and Wales have decided on a new translation of the Bible readings we listen to every week. The new lectionaries will be in use from the First Sunday of Advent. This also means the readings in your Sunday missals will be different. If anyone would like to purchase a new missal they are available from CTS (Catholic Truth Society), alternatively, I can place a bulk order for anyone wishing to buy one. There are three options available:

A standard edition in red hardback with 2 ribbons - £19.95. A red paperback version which lasts just for the year from Advent to Christ the King 2025 - £9.95 and a gilt-edged, burgundy bonded leather missal with two ribbons and a slipcase - £29.95. If anyone would like to order one please let me know asap. I will need to place the order quickly to have them in time for Advent.

In memory of them it was agreed that the parish rooms would now be known as the Stancer Rooms, and 2 plaques have been made to go on the doors, as well as one thanking them, to go on the wall. We would like someone to put these up. If you can help please contact Liz Mason or Fr Clement asap. Many thanks.

NOVEMBER is the month when we pray for the dead. Our faith in the resurrection encourages us to pray in hope for the forgiveness of their sins and the gift of eternal life. Each parish community brings this prayer together for all its relatives, friends and benefactors in Masses (the Dead List) offered throughout the year. If you would like your family and relatives to be included there are forms in church for the November Dead List. Please take one and fill it in with the SURNAME(S) of the family(ies) you would like remembered. (Please note, these people will be remembered collectively in Masses that are for the dead list. They will NOT be said individually.)

When you have completed your form please return it with your offering to church. Many thanks.

'1915' by Robert Graves

I've watched the Seasons passing slow, so slow,
In the fields between La Bassée and Bethune;
Primroses and the first warm day of Spring,
Red poppy floods of June,
August, and yellowing Autumn, so
To Winter nights knee-deep in mud or snow,
And you've been everything.

Dear, you've been everything that I most lack
In these soul-deadening trenches—pictures, books,
Music, the quiet of an English wood,
Beautiful comrade-looks,
The narrow, bouldered mountain-track,
The broad, full-bosomed ocean, green and black,
And Peace, and all that's good.

Mass Setting - Mass of Christ the Saviour

Gloria 1013; Holy, Holy 1014; Memorial Acclamation 1016-1017; Lamb of God 1019

On Friday we celebrate the feast of St Luke. Luke wrote one of the major portions of the New Testament, a two-volume work comprising the third Gospel and Acts of the Apostles. In the two books he shows the parallel between the life of Christ and that of the Church. He is the only Gentile Christian among the Gospel writers. Tradition holds him to be a native of Antioch, and St Paul calls him “our beloved physician.” His Gospel was probably written between 70 and 85 A.D.

In the Acts of the Apostles we can find much background and context to the letters of St Paul. Indeed Luke appears in Acts during Paul’s second journey, remains at Philippi for several years until Paul returns from his third journey, accompanies Paul to Jerusalem, and remains near him when he is imprisoned in Caesarea. During these two years, Luke had time to seek information and interview persons who had known Jesus. He accompanied Paul on the dangerous journey to Rome where he was a faithful companion.

A CAFOD Prayer for Peace

Jesus, Prince of Peace,
Be with your peoples
Suffering the storms of war,
In fear of thundering weapons,
Shedding raindrops of tears
For lost loved ones,
Lost homes,
And lost futures.
Shine on them Lord,
The sun of justice,
Bring them fresh breezes of hope,
The gentle warmth of confidence and trust
Built on a springtime of reconciliation.
Amen.

Thought for the Week

Be grateful, and be positive.
Because life is too short to always be worried.
Let go of stress and realise you are blessed.

This Thursday is the feast of Saint Ignatius of Antioch. Born in Syria in the first century AD, Ignatius converted to Christianity and eventually became bishop of Antioch. In the year 107 Emperor Trajan visited Antioch and forced the Christians there to choose between death and apostasy. Ignatius would not deny Christ and thus was condemned to face the lions in the Circus Maximus. Ignatius is well known for his seven letters, written on the journey from Antioch to his martyrdom in Rome, urging his fellow Christians to hold firm to their faith and not to be misled by heretical doctrines.

The International Prayer for Peace

Lead me from death to life, from falsehood to truth
Lead me from despair to hope, from fear to trust
Lead me from hate to love, from war to peace
Let peace fill our hearts, our world our universe
