If you notice anything on or around the church premises which has the potential to cause harm or requires repair please let Liz Mason, Fr Stephen or Simon Jones know as soon as possible so that appropriate action can be taken promptly.

Many Congratulations to Fr Christian, Ordained Priest at St Marie's Cathedral last Saturday.

Fr Christian will be presiding at a Concelebrated Mass at 10.00am here at OLST this Sunday, 30th June.

There will be celebrations afterwards in the parish rooms, to which EVERYONE is invited and welcome!

Please do come along and help make this a great parish celebration and social event!!

This weekend there will be a retiring collection for Peter's Pence, as are celebrating the Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul (transferred from Saturday 29th June).

The Peter's Pence fund supports the Holy Father's mission which extends throughout the entire world, from the proclamation of the Gospel to the promotion of integral human development, education, peace, and brotherhood among peoples. The fund also helps support the numerous charitable works in aid of people and families in difficulty, populations afflicted by natural disasters and wars, or who are in need of humanitarian assistance or support for development.

The General Election. A Year of Encounter.

The few responses we have received so far to our questions can be seen on the board in church.

Thank you for engaging with this, for your questions, your considerations and your prayers.

Thank you for anything you can continue to do to bring more Good News and peace on earth, news of solidarity, integrity and justice.

Voting is this Thursday 4th July from 7am -10pm.

NEXT SUNDAY - PADLEY PILGRIMAGE

Annual Pilgrim Walk from Totley to Padley Chapel Shrine on Sunday July 7th - starting from English Martyrs Carpark, Totley at 11am (Walk approx 3 hours)

David & Anne-Marie Fletcher, parishioners at English Martyrs Totley, are inviting anyone who wishes to join them in a 6 mile pilgrim walk (with picnic lunch stop at Longshaw). Starting point is from English Martyrs Church Carpark S174DF- through Totley Bents & across Blackamoor - descending to Padley Gorge and finishing at Padley at approx 2pm.

Wear walking boots as terrain is good but not smooth and bring waterproofs just in case; Bring water and pack up lunch. The walk would not be suitable for those with walking difficulties but some may wish to join us at Longshaw Cafe lunch stop. We aim to be at Padley Chapel grounds with plenty of time to rest before the 3pm procession from Grindleford Station & 3.30pm Outdoor Catholic Mass honouring the Padley Priest Martyrs who were captured at Padley in July 1588.

There are toilets at English Martyrs Church, Fox House, Longshaw Cafe & Grindleford Cafe. There will be portaloos at Padley. Return either by foot; by train from Grindleford station or possibility of car lift.

If you would like to join us or find out more then email Anne-Marie : amfletcher2800@gmail.com or simply turn up ready to set off at 11am on July 7th.

...Just to clarify: The walk from Totley is a special way to take part in the pilgrimage, if you are able. But all are welcome to attend the Pilgrimage Mass, regardless of how you get there and what time you plan to arrive.

Celebrate 30 years of the Fairtrade Mark

21. Get crafty with your campaigning Rather than printing lots of leaflets and wasting paper, many campaigners have turned to making their own engaging campaign materials in recent years.

Lots of campaigners share top tips on everything from creating FAIRTRADE Marks with old potatoes to promoting collaborative crafting sessions in their local communities. <https://action.fairtrade.org.uk/page/122895/petition/1>

Saints Peter and Paul

Peter and Paul are the two pillars on whom Christ built his Church.

The New Testament shows Peter as leader of the apostles. With James and John he was privileged to witness the Transfiguration, the raising of a dead child to life, and the agony in the Garden. His mother-in-law was cured by Jesus. To Peter only did Jesus say, "You are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church, and the gates of the netherworld shall not prevail against it. I will give you the keys to the kingdom of heaven."

Yet the gospels reveal many flaws in Peter. He walks on the water in faith but then starts sinking in doubt. He refuses to let Jesus wash his feet, then wants his whole body cleansed. He swears that he will never deny Jesus, and then swears to a servant maid that he has never known the man. Jesus says to us as he said, in effect, to Peter: "It is not you who have chosen me, but I who have chosen you. It is not human wisdom that makes it possible for you to believe, but my Father's revelation."

Paul's experience of the risen Jesus on the road to Damascus was the driving force that made him one of the most zealous, dynamic, and courageous ambassadors of Christ. But persecution, humiliation, and weakness became his day-by-day carrying of the cross. Paul's central conviction was simple and absolute: Only God can save humanity. To be saved from ourselves, from sin, from the devil, and from death, we must open ourselves completely to the saving power of Jesus.

A Columban Prayer for Election Time

Eternal God, Lord of creation, as we look towards the upcoming election
we ask that your Spirit of Truth be upon us.

Let us, your people, be guided by Gospel values,
of love of neighbour, truth, justice and compassion towards all, particularly the 'least' of our sisters and brothers.

Help us to choose political parties and candidates willing to place the needs of the many before the profits of the few,
to put the wellbeing of the majority above the wellbeing of the markets, and the conserving of our common home ahead of the cossetting of corporations that harm creation. Amen.

Fr. Kevin McDonagh SSC

A Prayer for Priests by Pope Benedict XVI

Lord Jesus Christ, eternal High Priest, you offered yourself to the Father on the altar of the cross and through the outpouring of the Holy Spirit gave your priestly people a share in your redeeming sacrifice.

Hear our prayer for the sanctification of our priests.
Grant that all who are ordained to the ministerial priesthood may be ever more conformed to you,
the Divine Master.

May they preach the Gospel with pure heart and clear conscience. Let them be shepherds according to your own heart, single-minded in service to you and to the Church, and shining examples of a holy, simple, and joyful life.

Through the prayers of the Blessed Virgin Mary,
your Mother and ours, draw all priests and the flocks entrusted to their care, to the fullness of eternal life where you live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.
